

Opportunities for Service
Annunciation Catholic Church Stewardship Form 2008-2009

Phone Number _____

Usual Mass Time _____

Parents are the first teachers of their children. One of the best ways to teach is by example. Please prayerfully consider what ministries you may do with your children, so that your children learn first-hand from their parents about giving of their talents and time to God.

Name	Name	Name	Name	Name	Ministry
					Lector at mass—parent do one reading, child do one reading greeter musician—parent and child could lead music with a song leader mass server—parent and child can serve together offertory—whole family can participate rosary—parent and child—or whole family can lead together Care for flowerbeds around church
					Youth Ministry—plan one activity for middle school or high school youth group—volunteer along with your child for a youth activity Quilt or do handwork for the Ladies—embroider quilt blocks together at home Parish picnic—entire family including school-aged youth should participate in church picnic
					Prayer ministry—entire family could pledge to pray together daily for the needs of parishioners Eucharistic Ministers - high school aged youth and parents can participate in this ministry when approved by the Bishop.
Our Baptism calls us to service!					